

St Thomas' Cell Group questions

1. Think of your own journey to Christ. How did you feel being reconciled to Him? Do you still feel that way?
2. What Bible stories can you think of, where relationships were reconciled, or needed reconciliation.
3. Can you think of a relationship of yours where reconciliation (not just forgiveness) was needed? Are you reconciled, if so, how did you go about it? What did you learn?
4. Is there ever a time when reconciliation is inappropriate?
5. Do you have, or have you had a broken relationship that needs, or still needs reconciliation?
6. How does an estranged relationship make you feel, or how do you think it would make you feel and does it/would it have an impact on your life, does it/would it restrict you at all?
